Fear Grips Haiti

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (UPI) — President Juan Bosch, threatening to invade Haiti if it commits any new aggression against the Dominican Republic, today sought collective inter-American action against Haitian President Francois Duvalier.

Bosch called Duvalier "a mentally sick man" Thursday night and cited a statement Wednesday by the Haitian president that only God could remove him from power.

A fact-finding team of the Organization of American States (OAS) flew to Santo Domingo from the Haitian capital of Port Au Prince Thursday, leaving behind a country gripped by fear that Duvalier would resume a violent campaign against his enemies.

May Not Wait

Bosch told foreign correspondents in his presidential residence Thursday night that the Dominican Republic would not wait for OAS action in the event of renewed Haitian aggression.

Another rare weekend, seventh in a row.

All right. Now you begin the grass cutting in earnest. This means we've got to listen to the whine of power mowers until October?

Two members of an American expedition like the Stars and Stripes on the summit of the Himalayas' Mt. Everest, rooftop of the world, and President Kennedy properly hails the feat and invites Americans to join him in saluting "our gallant countrymen."

We dunno. But we think that as long as man retains this thirst for adventure, insists upon pursuing the impossible quest, and continues climbing the highest of mountains, so long may we have bright hope that in time all will be well.

Governor Scranton putting the pressure on recalcitrant legislators by freezing $5,000 state patronage jobs until his 5 per cent sales tax program is enacted.

This is hitting where it hurts most and the gunner is learning the tricks of the trade very quickly. Only trouble is he may also learn that to eliminate this immense patronage melon he has at his complete control, and which during his campaign he promised to eliminate, would destroy the very kind of power politics he is using and which he campaigned against.

You just never know.

We know, however, that that was a pretty fair golf game Jack Nicklaus shot in the first round yesterday of the Las Vegas $60,000 Tournament of Champions when he posted a 64 — two strokes under Arnold Palmer's 66.

But for one reason or another we figure Mr. Palmer has this one wrapped up.

Good News For Croydon Acres

The Frost Was On The Apple Trees, So . . .

Early this morning helicopter pilot Bud Fischer of Levittown took his craft into the air to battle frost on the apple blossoms at Styer Brothers Orchards, Woodbourne Road, Langhorne. By circulating air, and generating heat through its fumes, the 'copter was able to raise the temperature four degrees within 15 minutes. Although the overnight low was 44, absence of wind coupled with decreased temperatures near ground level led to frost conditions. Trees were also burned at the orchard. (Courier-Times Photo)

VA To Repair Homes

Several homeowners in Croydon Acres received good news today when told that the Veterans Administration has agreed to correct the alleged "unsanitary conditions" existing in some of the houses.

Leonard L. Newman, director of licenses and inspections for Bristol Township, today disclosed that the VA has agreed to inspect houses and correct the "defective conditions" where the VA is the owner of the property.

Newman said the VA and the township reached an "amicable agreement" following a meeting Wednesday in the VA's Levittown office at 97 Crabtree Drive.

At Conference

Conferring with Newman were Joseph Malone, assistant manager of the Veterans Administration Center, Philadelphia; Richard Horton, VA loan guarantee officer; Emanuel Farbman, chief attorney for the VA, and Robert Benson, loan guarantee attorney.

Newman yesterday received a telegram from S. W. Melosian, manager of the VA Center in Philadelphia, confirming the VA's intentions in cleaning up the situation.

Three Bristol Township commissioners last Saturday made an inspection tour of the VA-owned homes, finding that 19 houses in the Route 13 development of 470 homes, were affected by condensation from "improper heating systems."

Legal Steps

The commissioners, Larry Cerasoli, Samuel U. Delp and Arthur F. Diehl Jr., and Newman, then notified the VA that it would take legal steps to cite the government agency if the conditions were not corrected.

Newman today pointed out that the VA will take steps to "correct defective conditions in houses which are legally theirs." The township inspector did point out that many homes in Croydon Acres are owned by the Federal Housing Administration. Newman said he didn't know what the FHA would do if any of its homes are affected by the conditions.

Newman also stated that other homes in Croydon Acres which are either up for sale or for rental will be inspected by the township to insure that the houses conform to the township housing code.

On Dream Vacation

Travel Light And You'll Be Happy

The questions from Lower Bucks dream vacationers, who are going to join us July 13 on our 15-day all-air flight trip to Europe's most exciting cities, are coming in at a furious pace these days.

What kind of clothes should we take along? Where do I apply for my passport? What kind of inoculation shots do we need? Can

I arrange to finance the trip and how do I go about it?

Well — we've got the answers to all of them and any more questions vacationers can think of.

The first question — especially of interest to the ladies — can best be answered by suggesting "take lightweight cotton dresses, summer suits, nylon or other synthetic material blouses which can be easily rinsed and dried on a hanger, at least three or four pairs of hosiery, lingerie, robe and slippers in minimum range.

If you feel you must — take along an evening dress. Chances are, however, you won't even get to use it.

Must Be Sure

Take along comfortable walking shoes (two pairs so you can change off) besides dress shoes. If you have any doubt about taking something along — leave it home. The lighter you travel — the happier you'll be.

We'll cover the subject in more detail at our next get-together.

For the men, two suits (a light one for daytime, a dark one for evening; sport jacket and slacks. Two pairs of comfortable walking shoes is a good idea.

As for electric shavers and electric irons, it's best to leave them at home unless you can't do without them.

Blast Furnace Explosion Injures 31

TRENTON, Mich. (UPI) — An explosion at a blast furnace of McLouth Steel Corp. Thursday night sent scalding steam over a repair crew, injuring 31 men.

Authorities said 25 workers were treated and released at five hospitals in this downriver Detroit area. Six other men were hospitalized for treatment. Most suffered burns, but one man had a broken arm and a concussion.

"It happened so quick," said one worker, John McClusky, 33, Lincoln Park, Mich. "The steam just came pouring out. It was hot."

McClusky said he was laying brick on the outside of the furnace when the steam set off the explosion.

"I got up and ran," he said, "but I was burned pretty badly on my face."

McClusky was part of a work crew repairing the No. 2 blast furnace at McLouth's plant here. The work was being done by the A.E. Anderson Co. of Buffalo, N.Y.

A McLouth spokesman said water apparently seeped into a stove of the furnace and resulted in the steam explosion.

Tom Flynn, a business agent for Local 35 of the Bricklayers Union, said the water passed from the stove through "the hot main valve into the furnace and caused the explosion."

Leopoldville Police Revolt

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI) — Congolese soldiers and gendarmes today put down a short-lived mutiny by 2,000 Leopoldville policemen who were demanding more pay.

Soldiers in combat dress and armed with automatic weapons surrounded the main police camp, Lufungula, where most of the mutineers had gathered.

Jeep loads of officers and men entered through the main gate, disarmed the policemen and loaded the weapons onto army trucks.

Gendarmes also went to city hall and arrested policemen who had taken over the building.

Sen. Keller Feels 3 Per Cent Tax 'Across - The - Board' Is Sufficient

By SCOOP LEWIS
Courier-Times Staff Writer

State Senator Marvin V. Keller feels a three per cent "across-the-board" sales tax will produce "more than enough" new revenue which Governor William W. Scranton is seeking from the Legislature.

Keller, of Newtown, expressed his thoughts last night in an interview following his speech at a testimonial dinner-dance honoring Bristol Township's five Republican commissioners. The affair at the Sherwood House, Morrisville was attended by 230 Republicans.

Keller, when asked about Scranton's initial proposal to increase the state sales tax from four to four-and-a-half per cent, said he'd rather "go to five per cent," contending that four-and-a-half per cent "is confusing."

In regards to Scranton's original thoughts on extending the sales tax to shoes and clothing, Keller told last night's gathering "I sincerely hope I'm not asked to vote for that type of program."

He acknowledged the fact that the state needs money. He pointed (Continued on Page 3, Col. 7)

A Muddy 'Track'

The sea of mud you're looking at is Knight Road, looking south from Dunksferry Road in Bensalem toward the Liberty Bell harness track. The road is being made into a four-lane highway. Work on the project just got under way recently — should take a year to complete. (Courier-Times Photo)

Horses Have Place To Run On June 7 — But Will Car?

By PAUL ALTAIRE
Courier-Times Staff Writer

There'll be plenty of horses to pick from the night of June 7 when the new Liberty Bell Harness Track opens.

The only trouble is — you may need a horse to reach the track.

Knight Road, main Lower Bucks thoroughfare leading to the track at the borderline of Bensalem and Philadelphia, now looks more like a tryout field for mudders than it does a state highway. And there is little likelihood that improvements will be completed in time for the track opening, with a possibility they may not even be before the 100-day harness racing season ends.

Just Under Way

The project, according to the highway department, should normally take about one year to complete. But while the track and the track site were approved well over a year ago, reconstruction of Knights Road to a four-lane highway just got under way.

Another highway project on the boards for improvement is that of Byberry Road in Philadelphia, which becomes Woodhaven Road near the track site. Work on that project has not yet gotten under way and the highway department doubts that it will before the track season comes to a close.

To Enter Birmingham Streets 200 Negroes Plan To Protest Segregation

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)

Negro leaders said they may send at least 200 demonstrators into the city's streets today to protest segregation. One source said the Negroes also planned to attempt negotiations with some white merchants.

"If we march today, we'll try to keep it down to around 200 demonstrators," the Rev. Wyatt Tee Walker said.

Walker said the Negroes have two walkie talkies which they would use again if the marches get under way.

One Negro leader said four or five groups of Negroes planned to contact white store managers and discuss integration of their facilities. Birmingham's racial demonstrations began about a month ago, when Negroes claimed the city's white merchants reneged on an agreement to integrate their stores.

The Negro source said the negotiations planned for today would be the first in some time. "To my knowledge there have been no authentic negotiations recently," he said.

Walker, who is public relations director for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, denied a claim by Police Chief Jamie Moore that 4,000 Negroes would demonstrate today. Moore had said a Negro leader warned him he could plan on arresting 4,000 Negroes.

Police arrested more than 750 Negroes Thursday in this steel city in the largest mass demonstration protesting segregation ever held in the United States.

At least 2,000 Negroes were milling in the streets at the height of the protest which apparently was triggered by the command of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the best-known civil rights leader in the nation.

Authorities said none of the Negroes posted bond and all spent the night in jail.

Churchill For Nuclear Arms

LONDON (UPI) — Sir Winston Churchill, in a rare public comment on a national issue, said today Britain must keep its nuclear deterrent.

"To abandon it now would be to abandon it forever," Churchill said in a letter to the Primrose League, a Conservative organization of which he is grand master. "I do not advocate the spreading of nuclear arms," he wrote. "But this country has an unequalled record of responsibility in international affairs. These deadly weapons are safer in our hands than in any other."

Only last Tuesday Churchill announced his impending retirement from the House of Commons. The former prime minister is 88 years old.

Crack Down On Strip Clubs Police Raids Follow Releases To-The-T

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Police prepared advance news releases about Bourbon Street strip club raids last night. Then went out and raided the spots just like the news releases said they would.

They hit five clubs in the French Quarter. Twenty-four persons were arrested. The police hit clubs that employ B-girls to drink with customers.

Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison, whose office cooperated with city police in planning the raids, said he would go to court today to ask that all five clubs be padlocked.

Many Arrested
Dancers sidewalk barkers, waitresses and club operators were arrested.

Police Supt. Joseph I. Giarrusso said his department found evidence of rampant B-drinking during a month long investigation in which two out-of-town undercover agents spent $3,000 gathering evidence.

It was the first major French Quarter raid since Garrison and Giarrusso patched up their differences last month over the best way to crack down on French Quarter vice activities.

Clubs Listed
Raided were Frieda's Parisienne Club, The Silver Frolics, The Mardi Gras Lounge, The Flamingo Club and Guys and Dolls. Advance releases were circulated to news media before the raid.

commissioner, Leonard B. Sokolove, had sharply criticized Newman, Cerasoli, Delp and Diehl for their "atrocious handling" of the situation.

Sokolove said "the commissioners have settled problems with the VA in the past by sitting down and deciding upon a proper course of action without accusations and charges being leveled of this nature." He was referring to Newman's indicating that the VA could be fined $25 for each violation for every day the situation exists after the agency was notified.

Policeman

Held For Court

A Bristol Township police officer has been held for the next term of county court on charges brought by his wife.

Patrolman Edward Martin was released under a peace bond by Justice of the Peace Leon H. Milnor, of Newtown. The officer is charged with surety of the peace.

Martin's case will come before the next term of Bucks County Quarter Sessions Court in Doylestown.

Harry W. Fawkes, president of the Bristol Township Board of Commissioners, said that "no immediate action" regarding Martin's status will be taken.

Fawkes said "a decision will probably be made by the commissioners early next week." He said that the township solicitor, William J. Carlin, will first have to study the transcripts of last night's hearing.

but the news never leaked to Bourbon Street.

The releases, written in the past tense, went into detail about how arrests were made and said there was a close similarity between the alleged B-drinking operations in all five clubs.

Detailed Reports
The report said dancers were encouraging customers to buy $15 and $31 bottles of champagne and to accompany them into booths in darker areas of the clubs.

The report said "sexual orgies" were proposed by the dancers to take place both in the clubs and elsewhere.

It added that the clubs had installed special buzzers and employed other systems to warn of approaching police.

Kozlov Has 2nd Heart Attack

MOSCOW (UPI)—Deputy Communist party leader Frok Kozlov, the man Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has dubbed as his successor, was reported today to have suffered his second heart attack.

The report came from usually well-informed Eastern European sources. They said he is in "serious condition."

This would explain Kozlov's mysterious absence from the May Day parade two days ago at which Cuban Premier Fidel Castro stood by Khrushchev's side.

Diplomats here believe the succession race behind Khrushchev, in the event the 55-year-old Kozlov might be forced out by illness, would be wide open.

There are no other clear-cut candidates at the moment.

McDonald Hopes For Steel Peace

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — A hope for "continued peace in steel" was expressed Thursday by David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers of America (USW).

McDonald spoke at a conference of industrial editors but gave no clue as to whether the USW will open formal contract talks this year. The pact signed last spring permits a union re-opening on wages and certain job security provisions anytime in 1963 after May 1.

The USW chief called on labor and management generally to "cut off a lot of the fighting" in their relations and try to "carry out the idea of mutual trusteeship."

He pointed to the Human Relations Committee, a union-company unit that airs working conditions in the steel industry on a year-long basis, as an example of mutual trusteeship, as opposed to "a lot of fighting."

McDonald told the editors the committee is working hard "to find the answers to problems that exist."

He said he did not wish to disclose the union's plans in its current and future contract relations with the steel industry. On the other hand, he said, he saw no harm, "and perhaps a great deal of good, in being frank and announcing a decision once the need for keeping it private has passed."

The USW contract with the Kaiser Steel Corp. last December was hailed by McDonald as "revolutionary" because, for the first time in an industry as large as steel, "it provides a share for the workers in savings by the use of men, materials and machinery."

Pact Re-Opening On Wages Seen

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Recent price increases in the steel industry probably will result in a wage re-opening by the United Steelworkers but not in a strike, Thomas Campbell, publisher of Iron Age magazine said Thursday.

Campbell said David J. Donald, president of the United Steelworkers Union, "will soon take part in trying to get what he considers his union's share of the price increase."

In a speech to the Industrial Advertisers Association, Campbell said the wage re-opening is imminent.

He said when it does occur the union "will be far more militant than would have been the case had there been no price increase."

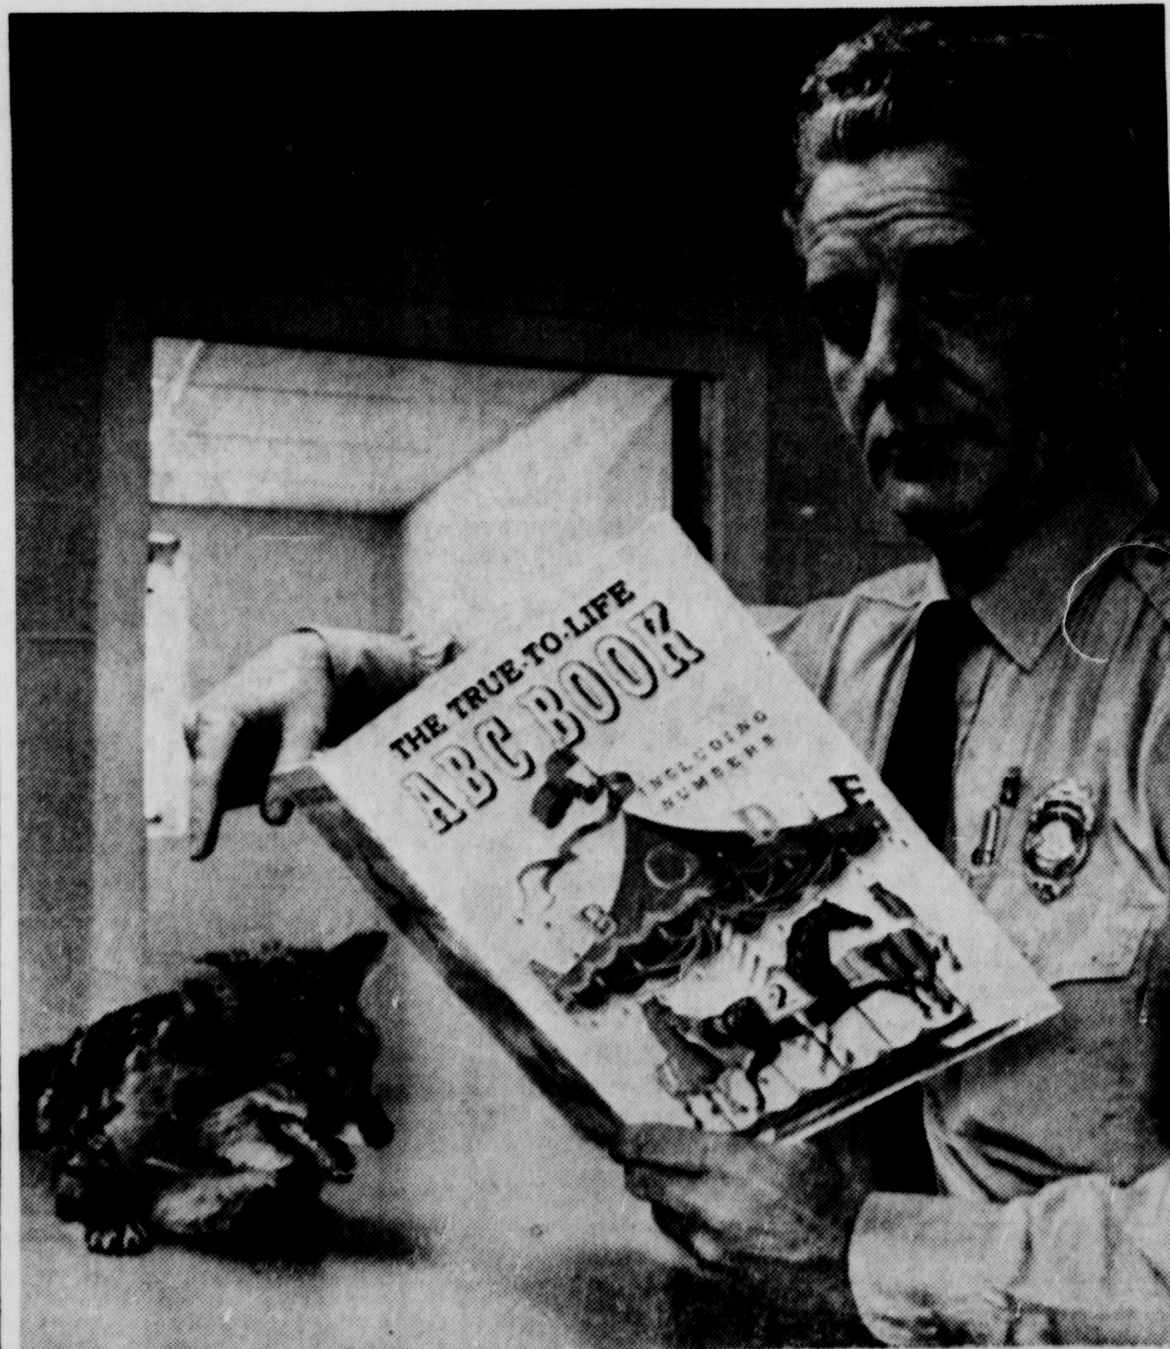

Pet Fox Found In Levittown

Some animal owner has been outfitted by his pet, which was found wandering in Levittown's Cobalt Ridge section this morning. The pet happens to be a red fox, which seemed happy to be found by Charles Poplawski, 6 Cinnamon Road.

Poplawski said the fox came to him when he put out his hand and called it. It was wearing two collars — one leather and one plastic with bells attached.

Poplawski said the animal was turned over to Middletown Township's animal control officer, James Whalen.

The owner can pick up the pet at the township building, Route 413, or can call Whalen at WI 9-1000, he said.

"Yes, F is for Fox," Middletown Township's animal control officer, James Whalen, seems to be saying as he entertains what either is a very tame or a very shrewd fox found wandering in Levittown's Cobalt Ridge section this morning. (Courier-Times Photo)

Paterson Firm VP Retires

Karl Dammann, vice president of manufacturing of the Paterson Parchment Paper Company, Bristol, retired May 1. Dammann has been with the company over 44 years. He originally came with the company in 1918 as a master mechanic, and had a colorful career. He became superintendent, plant superintendent, and in April, 1955 became general manager. In 1956, he was promoted to vice president of manufacturing. Mr. Dammann also has served as a member of the board of directors and on the executive committee.

E. R. Leonard, president of the company, presented an engraved certificate for his service record, and he also received the well wishes of the board of directors for a happy retirement. Dammann resides with his wife, Theresa, 117 Stacy Ave., Trenton.

Nine-Year Old Boy Causes Court Uproar

NEW YORK (UPI) — A 9-year-old boy went with his classmates and teacher to visit the State Supreme court Wednesday.

They had been invited to visit the court as part of the Queens County Bar Association program for Law Day.

The group walked into Justice George P. Stier's court where the manslaughter trial of Jerry Anderson, 19, was in session. They sat down quietly and listened to the proceedings.

Gives Note

All except the 9-year-old, who: — Gave a note to a juror.

— Caused the defense counsel to call for a mistrial.

— Prompted the judge to bar grammar students from his courtroom.

— Forced the trial into recess.

— Was interrogated by the judge personally.

— Started an investigation by the district attorney.

The note said: "Jerry is innocent. The DA is trying to railroad him."

The juror passed the note to a court attendant and said someone had tried to tamper with his objectivity.

The attendant passed the note

Admits Note

The nine-year-old rose and said, "I did."

Defense Counsel Sam Segal made a motion for a mistrial. Stier took it under consideration.

The trial was recessed, but not before Stier vowed he never would permit grammar school students into his court again.

out the deficit "left over" from the administration of former Governor David L. Lawrence. Scranton, in a TV speech Wednesday night, said the Lawrence administration left him with a $36,000,000 deficit.

By a three per cent "across-the-board" sales tax, Keller meant taxing all types of retail merchandise; clothing, furniture, automobiles, household items, food, drugs etc.

The senator said he felt such a tax would produce more than enough and "get a better percentage of returns."

Keller favors Gov. Scranton's five per cent sales tax proposal which would exclude shoes and clothing.

Favors Tax

At the same time Keller said he is in favor of a two-cent tax on alcoholic beverages "sold across the bar."

Looking ahead, Sen. Keller noted that harness racing tracks will bring in added revenue to the tax coffers.

"Four tracks each operating a 50-day meeting," Keller remarked, "would yield $40,000,000 in tax revenues." However, he noted that only one track will be open this year, that being the Liberty Bell trotting track which opens June 7 in Philadelphia, adjacent to Bensalem Township.

Praised Tax Message
Keller praised Scranton's tax message as a "good Republican speech" and "one that should be supported by the people."

The senator said that the people of Pennsylvania, while wanting improved road programs and other services, "are reluctant to taxes."

Keller was guest speaker at the dinner arranged by the Bristol Township Republican Organization and the Bristol Township Republican Club. LeRoy Evans, county prothonotary and chairman of the township GOP organization, was chairman.

Toastmaster for the affair was Dr. George W. Schaffer, state GOP committeeman from Blooming Glen.

Five Honored
Bristol Township commissioners honored last night were Harry W. Fawkes, president of the board; Charles L. Worthington, Samuel U. Delp, Arthur F. Diehl Jr. and Carl F. Vetter.

Other speakers last night included Republican primary candidates, Harry W. Fritz Jr. for county commissioner; Joseph M. Haines for register of wills and Robert Tootell for clerk of quarter sessions court.

Bucks County Republican Chairman Paul R. Beckert nor none of the candidates endorsed by the county GOP party attended the affair.

2 Jet Fighters Collide In Air

STONE RIDGE, N.Y. (UPI) — The collision of 2 F105 jet fighters at 40,000 feet over this Catskill Mountains community, killing two civilian test pilots, was investigated today by Air Force officials.

State police said the 1,400-mile-an-hour aircraft collided and exploded about 5 P.M. Thursday over nearby Ashokan Reservoir.

Driver Will Face Jury

Mrs. Adele Miller, 44, of Cedar St., Croydon, will be tried before the next grand jury on two charges connected with the death of a passenger, who was killed when a car Mrs. Miller was driving crashed on Feb. 24.

Mrs. Miller was given a hearing yesterday before Bristol Justice of the Peace Eugene Spadacino, charged with involuntary manslaughter and driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. She was released after posting $500 bail for each charge.

Struck Pole

Mrs. Miller was the driver of a car which struck a utility pole on Beaver St., Bristol. In the crash, Mrs. Beatrice Cox, 49, of 123 Wood St., Bristol, was fatally injured.

Mrs. Cox was a cook employed at Del's Tavern, Beaver Dam Road, a bar owned by Mrs. Miller's husband, Mrs. Miller is the sister of Bucks County Commissioner Adolph A. Andrews.

Haiti and the Dominican Republic share the Caribbean island of Hispaniola.

Bosch's statement indicated Dominican forces would invade Haiti and try to crush Duvalier's autocratic regime.

Warns Against Aggression
The Dominican president said he would act if Haiti committed "any aggression against any Dominican citizen, interest or place, a plot against our government—any activity dedicated to prejudice the Dominican Republic, its interests or its nationals."

He said his government will ask the OAS for a collective break with Haiti under provisions of the Rio Treaty of Inter-American Defense which already has been invoked by the OAS in sending the fact-finding team to Haiti to study Dominican charges.

"We will make the request as soon as the investigative committee reports," Bosch said.

Action Deferred On Zone Request

Action was deferred last night by the Lower Makefield Zoning Board of Adjustment on a request by R. David Young, a psychologist, to use part of his new home in the township for an office.

Council Will Award Bids

A special meeting of Morrisville Borough Council has been called to award bids for two storm drainage projects on Monday.

Borough Manager Robert H. Steward said today council will convene at 7:30 p.m. in Borough Hall.

The two projects are for the feeder main in the fourth ward, and the Franklin St. storm drainage system.

Steward said bids were advertised last April 19, and a total of eight bids were received on the feeder main and four on the storm drain.

The federal government has already agreed to finance half the cost of the two projects, contributing $160,000. Residents last fall complained to the borough council that their homes were being flooded during heavy rainstorms.

Council, its hands tied so far as to borrowing any more money, appealed to federal authorities, who finally came through with aid.

Baseball Aux. Plans Party

The Morrisville Baseball Auxiliary will hold a novelty party on Saturday, June 1, it was announced today by President Mrs. Joseph Danbury.

She said the affair will be held in the Holy Trinity auditorium. The ways and means committee, who are planning the affair, consists of Mrs. John Scullin, chairman; Mrs. John Sawyer, and Mrs. Charles Gasper.

One of the door prizes which will be given away will be a used car, Mrs. Scullin said. The party will benefit the three baseball leagues in Morrisville.

Judges Named In Clothesline Art Exhibit

The judges for the fifth annual clothesline art exhibit slated in Yardley on Saturday, May 25, were announced today by Catherine Welsh, general chairman.

The judges, all art instructors, are Mrs. Harry A. Turner of Medill Bair School; George C. Ody of Charles Boehm High School; Mrs. Edward (Isabel Westberg); Edgar of Council Rock High School; Mrs. Marjorie Lake of the Upper Makefield and Newtown Schools; Mrs. Carol Foyer, of Junior 3 Elementary School, Trenton; Mrs. Claire Tulaski of Trenton Junior College, and John Slavik, of Hamilton High School.

Sponsor Named
The affair will be sponsored by the Yardley Art Association. Arts and crafts will be included in the exhibit, according to Miss Welsh.

The show is open to both professionals and non-professionals, school children and adults. The exhibit has been expanded this year to include photography and cartoons, and regularly includes oils, water colors, casein, collage, pin and ink, and sculpture. Rain date is June 1.
